Gallang Education and Training (GET)

GET is the registered training arm of Gallang Place, a highly respected non-profit organisation that has been providing counselling and support services to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people since 1994.

GET aims to build the capacity of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people to deliver social and emotional wellbeing services in every Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community, for stronger families and for future generations.

GET Qualified

GET offers nationally accredited training programs that prepare you for real world jobs.

GET delivers training that is sensitive to the cultural needs of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.

GET delivers accredited and non-accredited courses, which include: training workshops, skill sets, certificates and diplomas.

GET Flexible Learning

We offer flexible training delivered either face-to-face, self-paced or a combination of delivery modes.

Prior learning and current competency will be taken into consideration for all participants.

This means you can study in ways that suit you and your work place. You can get your qualifications in a way that doesn't interrupt your work, or allow you to pace your study as required.

GET Work Ready Staff

Because GET is a nationally accredited training provider, graduates are qualified to start work immediately.

Gallang Place was established in 1994, GET builds on the years of experience Gallang Place has with counselling and supporting services to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people. Graduates will have a deeper understanding of the needs of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander clients.

Gallang Place can also assist with ongoing professional supervision of qualified staff, to meet registration requirements and professional growth.

GET Support and Respect

Gallang Place knows Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, we know and respect the culture and community values. We know that some students may need additional support.

We will ensure all students gain the individual support and respect they need to succeed.
